

There is nothing to consider when it comes to NJ's Do Not Call law. It's strong and that's what it should be. The federal program should follow NJ's lead.